Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Cities Initiative Presents:

Breakout Session One: Planning for the Future – Adapting to the Physical Impacts of Climate Change
Project Funding

Climate change resilience. Economic recovery. Fresh water preservation. Cities in the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Region face many of these challenges and more. Addressing these challenges is not only technically challenging but also fiscally challenging. That’s why having a funding strategy is so important to your resilience strategy.

NOTE: For the United States, the table excludes the proposed American Jobs Plan unveiled on March 31, 2021. Announcements above are not directly comparable as they can cover multiple years (largely focused on 2021 and 2022) and include varying combinations of on-budget items, additional COVID-19 health spending, the extension of existing support measures, off-budget items, as well as contingency or reserve funds yet to be allocated to specific measures. They also generally exclude offsetting financing measures. Totals may not add due to rounding.
